“ Dear J.C.,...I sit here at our computer just trying to absorb the fact that Jane has moved on to her next life. Thank you so very much for phoning us to let us know of her tragic death. Here is where our Faith is put to the test. I continue to firmly believe that our lives are in God's hands....from birth to the grave. I don't understand much of what happens to us during that time...such as why did Jane have to endure so many painful physical difficulties? I don't have answers for that. Here is where our Trust is put to the test. I will be writing to you soon, J.C. So many thoughts and feelings are flooding my mind right now and I know this is not the time nor the place to say more. Jane was a dear friend. I am so sad. My prayers are with you. My deepest sympathy to you, Nancy, Doug, Bruce and all the family. May you continue to be sustained with God's loving comfort and strength. Love to all of you, Effie and Ted.###imported-begin###Ted and Effie Anderson###imported-end###
