Jane was a life long resident of Georgia and grew up in Sandy Springs. She attended church at Mt. Bethel United Methodist Church and graduated from North Fulton High School.

Jane loved cooking and entertaining family and friends. Her passion was always taking care of others. She enjoyed gardening, bowling and traveling.

Jane was married for 58 years and is survived by her husband, Allen P. Miegel, Jr.; her son, Allen W. Miegel and his wife, Janet; her son, Reid M. Miegel, and her grandson, Mitchell Miegel.

(Message taken from Psalms 16:11)

Jane knew and walked the path of life that Jesus had shown her. Now Jesus will fill her with the joy of his presence and eternal pleasures that we can only imagine. This can and will give us the joy of knowing she is at peace and is basking in the presence of her beloved Jesus forever.

“ I always smile when I think of Mrs Miegel. One of my fondest high school memories was when she would drive Reid and me to football practice. We always got there...FAST! In a GT or Cobra or IROC, always a dramatic alter ego to the super sweet, quiet woman I knew.

“ Death leaves a heartache no one can heal. Love leaves us memories no one can steal. Jane left many fond memories. She was a sweetheart. We mourn her loss and grieve for her family and friends. We hope that they will be comforted with the understanding that she has left pain and gone to join better company. There is reassurance in the notion expressed in the words of "Amazing Grace", "Yea, when this flesh and heart shall fail, and mortal life shall cease, I shall possess within the veil, a life of joy and peace."
