“ Janet was the first neighbor I met when we moved to Georgia....in the Spring of 1978. Last time we spoke was on her birthday, 2022. She was so happy.. Always a star, always honest and caring. Always involved. As solid as rock. What a life! My condolences to Angelo, Laura and Jennifer and other family members. Perhaps Chuck will have a welcome party. Keep shining bright Janet. I was so shocked to learn of Janet's passing. She was my hairdresser the 15 years we lived in Alpharetta and always took good care of me! My sincere condolences to her entire family. I know she will be deeply missed.
