“ I was blessed to be the Church Administrator at CFBC for 13 years. Frank and Janice were some of my volunteers and they served faithfully. They were both very quiet and didn't want recognition for their service. We were talking today wondering how many babies Janice rocked and how many people Frank greeted every Sunday. They were very special and will be missed. Our prayers are with your family!

So sorry to hear about Frank and Janice. To Stefanie and Brent our thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. We just found out about your parents both passing away and so close together. Your mom and dad were friends of ours at Crabapple some 49 years ago. Janice was my teacher for Sunday School and your dad was a wonderful friend. Your folks were a gift to us as newly weds. Stefanie I would come over and watch your mother give you a bath all the while you screamed your lungs out trying to reach for me to save you from bath time. I loved every minute of it. Blessings and prayers for your loss. They were a great couple. Much love. Bob and Debbie Johnson

“Janice and Frank Cox, especially Janice, had an influence on every junior aged, youth aged, new member, newlywed couple, and every newborn baby at Crabapple First Baptist Church since their own youth days in the 1960s.

When our family first moved to Crabapple and joined the Church in 1967, they were the Training Union leaders, not yet married, just beginning their lives of service. Then they were married, had their own children and grandchildren, faithfully serving through it all. By my calculation, something nearing 60 years.

I can't think of very many people who consistently stayed faithful to their service as these two did, through all the many ups and downs over time, and there were many.

I had occasion to "rock babies" with Janice one Sunday morning not terribly long ago, and she told me then she knew she was going to have to step down. We reminisced about the time we'd known each other and our families, who was now doing what, and talked about how fickle life could be. We were both thankful for the time and agreed heaven would bring us together again in a grand sweet reunion like the hour we had just shared. It was a happy, blessed time for both of us.

To say I am sad seems like minimizing the loss. However, it thrills my soul to know they've now experienced their heavenly reunion with those who've gone before and have met Jesus face to face.

I'm just about positive Janice is sitting a gold plated rocking chair and Frank got a pretty nice crown!

We are so sorry for your loss, Stefanie and Brent, and will continue to pray our heavenly Father will comfort you and all of the extended Cox family.

“ Stef and Brent, we're so saddened to hear this news. Your parents meant so much to us. They were so loving and kind and faithful, and their love for the Lord and for each other was so evident. Your mama held and took great care of our baby girls in the church nursery at CFBC. We are praying for all of you. Love, Donna and Don Pennell
