“ Our family has fond & loving memories of Mrs. Brumbelow. I became acquainted with her through my husband, Dr. Dale Duncan. She became a patient of his, shortly after her husband's passing. She made us rum cakes at Christmas time, & I always enjoyed our phone calls & occasional visits. Mrs. Brumbelow attended our wedding, and rejoiced at the birth of our two daughters. I last spoke to her around her birthday. She was in daily pain, and ready to go. Mrs. Brumbelow was a class act. A true child of God. They don't "make 'em like her" anymore. I will miss her, but so glad she is pain-free and walking in heaven. Sincerely, Dana Duncan

“ A mother/grandmother to all who knew her. Heaven is rejoicing to have an angel like Ms. Janie. She holds a special place in my family's heart. My children truly loved her and she loved them. She never forgot a child. I remember how she would sit and watch my children at church and smile. ?

“ We will always remember enjoying our visits to Aunt Jane to see what flowers she had blooming. She would often give advice about growing and nurturing the various varieties, and sometimes she would give us cuttings to try for ourselves. No doubt she is growing some prize-winning specimens in heaven now!

“ A woman of substance who set a Christian example for all. She welcomed you into her home and life. Some of my fondest memories are spending the night with her. We'd talk late into the night, eat snacks, watch the shopping channels and talk and talk. Sometimes we'd call friends and chat or meet them for dinner. She always gave great advise and from experience. She cooked, decorated but primarily everyone associates her with the birthday cards she sent and the flowers she grew. She and my father used to exchange seeds and plants (he lived in WV). I am thankful for the privilege of being her friend and a sister in Christ.

“ Miss Janie was a jewel! She was a surrogate grandmother to so many here in Atlanta that attended church with her. She graciously shared her beautiful garden with all of us flower lovers. Heaven's gain and our loss. Joyful she is out of pain with a new body and walking through a magnificent flower garden with the Lord.
