“ Over 25 years ago when we first visited the Sunday School class that Earl and Pat attended, Earl came up to us and invited us out to eat after evening service. We knew no one and were so blessed by his warm welcome to us strangers. But that was Earl...always with that smile! Whenever we saw Pat, we saw Earl by her side. We shall miss him terribly yet rejoice for the lives he touched with his testimony. To God be the Glory.

Sincerely, Clark and Tricia Macaulay

“ I worked with Earl at Chevron. When I moved to Atlanta Earl took me under his wing to make sure the transition was smooth. Earl was selfless, always caring about others more than himself. I still remember our Monday meetings at the Iron Skillet. Rest peacefully.
