

Mrs. Jean Audrey Cameron

January 14, 1932 - August 17, 2019

Jean Audrey Hands Cameron, 87, of Johns Creek, Georgia, beloved wife of the late Norris Allan Cameron passed away peacefully on August 17, 2019. She is survived by her three children, seven grandchildren, two great-grandsons, and one great-granddaughter. She was predeceased by her parents Tom Hands and Hilda Doris Hands (Ledbetter) and her brother Ivan Geoffrey Hands. Jean was devoted to her three children, twins, Susan Cameron Giardina (Kenneth) and Sarah Cameron Carver (Lawrence), and son, Andrew Reid Cameron (Claire Dube). She was cherished by her grandchildren Emily Susan Carver, Lindsay Jane Carver, Allison Sarah Giardina Rhadans, Andrea Susan Giardina Hill, Christopher Kenneth Giardina, Matthew Allan Cameron, and Michael Roland Cameron, and by her great grandsons, Pierce James Hill and Jackson Kenneth Rhadans, and great granddaughter, Hannah Brooke Rhadans.

Jean was born on January 14, 1932 in Willersey, Worcestershire, England. She met the love of her life, Norris Cameron, while he was stationed in the US Air Force in England. Norris and Jean were married in Willersey Village on February 7, 1953. They were then stationed throughout Europe, The United States, and England for 20 years. Post Air Force Retirement they lived in Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, England, and settled in Georgia to be near to their daughters and their families.

Jean had an artists heart and wonderfully creative hands. She was a model and a master seamstress, knitter, clothing designer, and fashion stylist. She knitted hundreds of designer hats which she generously gave to friends and donated to various charities.

Jean was ahead of her time in oh so many ways. Yes, she loved her family dearly. But she also loved our world. She had a special delight in all things which humanity touched. She had an open mindedness and an open kindness which was contagious. Jean could light up a room with her confidence, playfulness, beauty, and well learned life experiences.

Her Visitation and Funeral Service will be held on Saturday, August 24, 2019 at 11:30 AM at the Northside Chapel Funeral Home at 12050 Crabapple Road, Roswell, Ga. 30075. Interment will take place at Green Lawn Cemetery at 950 Mansell Rd., Roswell, Ga. 30076

Those wishing to make donations please do so to the Special Olympics at <https://give.specialolympics.org> in Jean Cameron's honor. Jean had been legally blind for 28 years and felt much compassion for children who suffer vision problems and other childhood disabilities.
