

Mrs. Jean Fowler Evans

March 19, 1931 - September 15, 2019

Jean Priscilla Fowler Evans, 88, of Roswell, Ga., died peacefully in her sleep September 15, 2019. She was born in Atlanta on March 19, 1931, to Lovick Rivers and Emma Lee (Gibbs) Fowler. She attended Roosevelt High School and graduated in its first class in 1948. She was an involved member of Park Avenue Baptist Church for decades and attended North River Baptist Church for the past five years.

A stay at home mother to three sons and numerous dachshunds and a dalmatian, she later entered the workforce working at Georgia Power Company, Whirlpool Corporation, Classified Advertising and with her husband's business, EDI Engineers.

She also volunteered with the New Georgia Railroad and was active with numerous committees and activities in the Orchards community. A lover of Christmas, cardinals and butterflies, she was a great home cook and her family wants you to know she made the best fried chicken and cheese cookies.

She was predeceased by her husband of 61 years, Samuel G. Evans, Jr., her parents and a sister, Martha Estelle Fowler.

Surviving are three sons and their wives, Samuel G. Evans III of Charleston, S.C., Lovick C. and Nancy D. Evans of Roswell, Phillip G. and Melinda S. Evans of Woodstock, two granddaughters Katherine L. Evans and 2nd Lt. Rachel J. Evans, USAFR, both of Atlanta, four nephews and their families, cousins and their families, a large group of supportive Orchards friends and neighbors and the residents and staffs of Addington Place at the Mills and Arbor Terrace.

The family will welcome visitors from 2:00-4:00 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 21 and at a celebration of her life immediately following at Northside Chapel, 12050 Crabapple Rd., in Roswell. Donations may be made, in lieu of flowers, to North River Baptist Church.

“ I was greatly saddened to learn of Jeans death. She was a lovely gracious young lady. I have not seen her in many years but I remember Jean from our high school days. We all would gather at Jeans's house often on Sunday evening after Park Ave Baptist BTU and evening services. That is where Jean n others taught me how to slow dance n jitterbug, so I could impress all my friends after school in the portable building behind RHS. I know she will be greatly missed. My deepest sympathy to the family and love ones. Ken n Joyce Hardin (omgitspoppaken@hotmail.com) Arlington, Texas
