

Jean Ann Scogin

November 25, 1959 - October 9, 2024

Jean Ann (“Annie”) Scogin, age 64, of Roswell, Georgia died on October 9th, 2024.

Annie was born in Kingsport, Tennessee. She lived in Kingsport for 21 years and always loved and cheered for the Tennessee Volunteers (where her two brothers attended college). Annie moved to Americus, Georgia for several years before moving to St. Simons Island, her favorite place on earth. Annie adored her two nieces and moved to Atlanta to be closer to family once they were born.

Annie graduated from Dobyys Bennett High School in Kingsport, Tennessee. She received an LPN degree from South Georgia Technical School. While holding numerous jobs, she loved working at Epworth By The Sea on St. Simons Island and Gwinnett Medical Center in Lawrenceville. Her best job, however, was dog sitting for friends and neighbors. Annie will be remembered for being a loving sister, aunt, and friend.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Robert Joseph Scogin, and Jean Thompson Scogin Greenway.

Annie is survived by three siblings: Robert Joseph Scogin, Jr. of Arvada, Colorado; William Randall Scogin of Louisville, Kentucky; and Kathryn Scogin

Harvey (Jeff) of Roswell, Georgia; and two nieces: Caroline Thompson Harvey of Atlanta, Georgia and Elizabeth Lauren Harvey of New York, New York.

A private family service will be held at Epworth By The Sea, St. Simons Island, Georgia.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to a charity of your choice in memory of Annie.
