*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.

“ Jerry will be missed very much. He was one of a kind. We'll miss all of his sayings, like "just idling around.", one of many. He was a kind and loving man and showed it to all who knew him. We thank God for you and knowing you these years. And know that God said to you, "Well done, my good man, and called him home." You will always be in our hearts.
