“ Obviously, I did not know Jessica...but I know her Mom, Gloria. My prayers and thoughts are with you. I really do not have the words to say...but, God Bless you and your family. If there is anything I can do to help, please let me know.

“ I never had the opportunity to meet Jessica, but on some level feel I knew her through my friendship with her mom, Gloria. She would sometimes share photos & life experiences with her daughter & granddaughter. I can only imagine the heartbroken loss of losing a daughter. As hard as it is now, try to find peace in knowing you will be reunited with her one day.

“ They always say God takes the good ones first... boy, did he get a gem in Jessica. She was a great mother, sister, daughter and wife. I have always had hopes of growing up to be just like her which is funny since I'm several years older than her. I loved the no nonsense, it's this way or no way especially with Baby Cara. . I was in awe of just what she could accomplish by asking around.. she always said it never hurts to ask... the worse they could do is say no... so let's do it. Well sis... I am always ask for the both of us. I've you sweet sister... I will see you on the other side... I love you baby girl... until we meet again.

“ My heart aches with the passing of my sister, Jessica. I can't put into words what she meant to me. She was always quick with a joke, a quip, and full of laughter, she had a sense of humor like no other. Always a woman with a mind of her own... she knew exactly what she wanted out of life and wouldnt settle for less than she deserved. You may be gone for now Jessica, but you will be forever in my heart... until we meet again!

“ One of my favorite memories of Jessica was right after Robbie and I moved up to Jasper to be with everyone... We were outside playing and Jessica taught me one of her favorite songs. She would go around singing this song all of the time and I felt special when she shared it with me... I will forever associate this song with that day and those happy, fun moments we shared together... "Delta Dawn what's that flower you have on? Could it be a faded rose from days gone by? And did I hear you say he was meeting you here today, to take you to that mansion in the sky."
