We are thinking of you at this time. We did not know your father well, but we know you and know what an important role he has played in your life. Our thoughts are with you and your family.

“ I am deeply saddened by the loss of a great friend and boss. But mostly an outstanding man. Joe taught me much about business and life in general and I will greatly miss our conversations. I'm very grateful I had the opportunity of knowing him, and I am a better person for it. I will always remember his energy, his positive attitude and his straightforward approach to everything. Please know that Joe and all of his family and friends will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I knew Joe only superficially at Safelite speaking with him on those occassions we were at events together. In those short conversations I came to realize Joe was a good man and was well liked by all who knew him. I will pray for you and your family knowing no words can fully comfort you at this time.
