“ It was an honor to know Joe and share in his life at Dogwood Forest. He was such a gentleman, full of humor and God fearing. We are going to miss him greatly but we know that his mansion was ready and he had to go and occupy it.

To his family, my prayers are with you and remember that because Christ lives you can face tomorrow. There is another meeting place.##imported-begin##Essie Waithaka##imported-end##
