“ John was the kind of person you loved to be around. My friendship with John was started at St Thomas. He was an Usher and I always enjoyed seeing him. We last met at Dunkin Doughnuts and he joined my wife and I. He told us about all the traveling he was doing and brought us up to date. He wore his Navy hat and was proud of his service. He is one of kind in a generation that is disappearing. He will be missed by his many friends.##imported-begin##Joseph Gionfriddo##imported-end##
