“ Sue / John,

There are NO WORDS that can be said at this time of your loss. Johnny was an inspiration to so many (he got this from each of you). I am thankful that I had the opportunity to know him and will never forget the "ketchup" and french fries story when Sue took him to McDonald's. Even in the state he was in, he made everyone smile.

Hoping that with time and so many memories that you will find time to rest and know that you both did all you could and then some to create a quality life for your son.

BIG HUGS and lots of prayers.
