

Mr. John W. Craven

August 6, 1948 - June 1, 2015

John William Craven, most beloved husband of Mary Lambert Craven and most beloved father to Chase Hunter Craven, succumbed to lung disease June 1, 2015. John was one of the kindest, most gentle of men. He absolutely loved to talk and liked nothing more than a rapt audience for his many stories of life and adventures. He was a proud, life-long Democrat and enjoyed discussing and/or arguing his political beliefs. Although a Gator who married a 'Nole, he found through thirty years of his marriage that it was in his best interest to not be around when FSU was playing on TV, or to root for FSU when necessary.

John was preceded in death by his first son, Sean, his second son, Jens, his mother, Nancy, and his grandparents, Carolyn and Valle Lyngyl. All those souls were there to meet him with big smiles and open arms. He is survived by his wife, Mary Craven; son, Chase Hunter Craven; father, Jim Ruse; step-father, James Mattox; sister, Cindie Craven; two brothers, J. D. (wife, Sherry) Mattox and Fr. Randy Mattox.

The family will receive friends Thursday, June 4, 5:00 - 8:00 PM at the funeral home. A family prayer service will be held Friday, 10:00 AM at the funeral home.

“ I just learned of John's passing today, December 13, 2016. I had tried for many years to contact John not having seen him since the early 90's. We went to undergraduate and graduate school but more important spent many Friday nights listening to music, playing cards and discussing psychological principles.

I have missed his friendship all these years and now will never know the joy of seeing my friend. I have many fond memories of John that now fall like teardrops in the rain.
