Dearest Reagan.....

This is Candace, your friend from long, long ago, but nevertheless, I am sending this message to you with the utmost heartfelt sympathy for the loss of your precious son. I did not become a parent until I was 44 and now the proud parent one miracle baby, a daughter, and knowing the love any parent has for their child, I cannot imagine the depth of your grief. I will pray for you and your wife, along with the rest of your family that God will give you the peace and grace that He only can give. I am grieving with you and those who loved Reagan.
