“ We are so sorry John did no make it out of his surgery. Certainly he left us much too soon.

Thinking about John makes me think of the very special "Pam's Room" decoration Aunt Betty made. The little sign stayed on Pam's door for many a year. The little sign was the result of one of the famous Pam / John sibling battles during their teen years!!! Pam had locked her door and John was beating on the door, oops, his fist went through the door. So, Aunt Betty made a great cover-up. Also, John remembered that the plumbing never failed to stop up when visiting our house.

We will think about all of you on Saturday and send a prayer your way.
