“ Sadly, I found this purely by accident today. Not that many years ago, most of my free time was spent with my Vera and Medellin family. You all accepted me into your family life as a brother and I will never forget it. John was always full of life and we all laughed and joked often in those days. John, you touched all whose path you crossed during your lifetime and you will be missed, my brother, but never forgotten. May the blessings of Heaven rest upon you until we meet again.###imported-begin###Jim Kiefer###imported-end##

“ Thinking about Tio John places a smile on my face. He always had me laughing with stories and jokes. What I admired about Tio John is he made time to build relationships with his nephews and nieces. Times we shared he'd tell me about his multiple collections in his garage. He gave me a ATL Braves button pin and said “take good care of it because it will be worth lots of money.” I still have them! But my favorite memory with Tio John was in Lansing, MI. He rode to my sister's house with me. On our way, I pulled into my church parking lot. We began to converse about GOD, church and salvation. Later, he told me that he had been praying, he felt something when we were talking and asked me to keep him in prayer. I kept that conversation close to my heart. It felt good knowing that God had touched my Tio's life. I believe there will be a day I'll see him again in glory!
Tia Carmen, Maggie , Mike, and Maria God bless you, be encouraged and I love you!

“ there are no words to say that can truly bring comfort to you, but John is very much missed in our hearts..especially yours. John was a very special man. He does not suffer anymore and as Melisa said when I told her..she and her dad are "catching up"..wayne also wanted me to extend his condolences..
Dear John- you are already deeply missed; by friends, by family, by us all. You were like another father to me. You were there for my mom and me after losing my dad. I know your keeping him company now. You two don't get into any trouble in the afterlife, ok?
I miss you and love you ~ Melissa we love you You, Cathy, Wayne, and Melissa###imported-begin###cathy allen###imported-end##
