“ Deree and Tara

Our deepest sympathies on your loss. We enjoyed your company at ball games watching our daughters play together and I (Pete) will miss those rare opportunities when I was able to work with Wes. He was a kind and caring man and I am honored to have called him a friend.

May God Bless your family and bring his grace upon thee.

“ Tara and Deree

Wes was a gentle, thoughtful caring man. For my limited time knowing Wes, He was a wonderful example of what God intended for a Husband and Father. I know that he loved the two of you more than anything.

“ Our hearts are with you. We will always treasure the memories we created when we were your neighbors. We may have moved away but you continued to be our family and friends. I will always remember going to see Wes play baseball and watching how proud OJ and Donna were of their son. He was very special and we will always be happy to have had those years as family, friends and neighbors.
