“ John was a fabulous boss back in the Telsam days at AT&T. I miss the work we did and our fun get togethers with him and Angela.

“ I'm going to miss my chats with you John, especially concerning our shared political views! Your wit and sense of humor were endearing and your lifetime of experiences made for interesting conversation. I'm happy that you had a long and fulfilling life and that you were healthy both physically and mentally. Your family, friends and neighbors will miss you but will cherish the memories and wisdom you bestowed.

“ I didn't know John well. We probably met only about a dozen times. Yet, I always enjoyed his stories. And I think he enjoyed telling them. Once he took over writing the Christmas cards he would always take the time to write an encouraging note. I'll always be grateful for the long phone conversations he had with Dad.

May memories like these comfort you and bring you peace. My love and prayers to you all. Nancy
