“ I first met Jordan when I briefly visited the family in New Jersey in 1992. Jordan was a few months old at the time and was sound asleep...it was about 9pm when I arrived. That didn't stop the proud new father from marching me into the darkened bedroom, switching on the bright lights and grabbing the baby from his crib to introduce me! Jordan squinted, rubbed his eyes and then smiled a huge smile. I knew at that moment that Jordan was a special person...able to be happy and delightful under even the most 'challenging' situations.

I'm sure I'm not the only one that was touched by this remarkable guy. I love you Jordan.

“ Right from the first time I met Jordan, I knew he was different. I found him to have an old soul, wise beyond his years. It always threw me, coming from such a young man. I was forever touched by his kind heart and will always cherish my time with him. Jordan, I hope you and my daughter, Cassie, have met now. I know you two will hit it off. ❤️ Jackie Kidd

“ Jordan was a sweet, smart, and precious little boy. He was a kind and considerate person. I enjoyed teaching him tremendously. I have nothing but fun and happy memories of him in my classroom at SHE. I am so terribly sorry for your loss. You are in my prayers and I pray that you will feel God's loving arms holding you tightly now and in the future.
