

Mr. Jordan Taylor Wickline

June 18, 1989 - March 27, 2018

Jordan Taylor Wickline was born to his loving parents Chris and Vicki on Father's Day, June 18, 1989. The bouncing baby boy of the family with two older sisters Noel and Lauren, Jordan quickly grew into a happy, chubby little kid with a cheerful smirk on his face.

Throughout his life, Jordan pursued passions requiring talent that couldn't be found in textbooks. He began playing ice hockey at age 9 and played year-round for the next decade. Later in life, Jordan's creative outlet as a street artist would find him painting while others slept – often returning to inspect his work later as the world would see it in the light of day.

To all who knew him, Jordan was lighthearted and upbeat. In the first five minutes of conversation with Jordan you were guaranteed two things: laughter and learning the definition of a new, hip slang term. Overall, Jordan brought much joy to his family and friends with his infectious laugh and jovial nature that put others at ease. His love extended to his own “children” – his dogs, Hugo and Norman. He was an adoring dad who cared for them just as if they were human.

Just as he was always current on the latest slang or street fashion, Jordan liked new places and experiences. Consequently, travel suited him well and, in recent years, he made his way across oceans to explore new cities and cultures. Although physically fit as an adult, Jordan was still the little chubby kid sampling sweets and new cuisines on his travels.

Jordan is survived by many who love him and miss him dearly. May he live on in our hearts and memories.

A memorial service will be held at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors on Friday March 30, 2018 at 11:00am.
