“ From one of the prayers at Mass today: "The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose, near restful waters he leads me." I could only think of Joe. I am sure he is now resting in those fresh, green pastures, near a restful stream.

“ Joe was a scout leader for BSA Troop 429 and Crew 83. He was the man's man the boys respected and looked up to. He knew what to do in nature to be safe. The boys always enjoyed his fishing and hunting stories around the camp fire. Joe, we will never forget you. Steven & Leo

“ Joey and I practically grew up together in Bremen. We shared a huge love for music. He was in the band at BHS and I was on the drill team from the beginning until my Senior year. We were in the BHS chorus together, him singing and me on the piano. Sometimes we would sing duets in church at Poseyville, my family's church. He would either bring his acoustic guitar or I would play the piano. After we reconnected in our adult years long after school, Jim, my husband, and Joey became friends and so did Tere and I. We spent at least one day of our annual vacation doing something with Joey and Tere. We missed the past two summers because of our move to Texas (2014) and then Joey got sick this summer. I am so glad I talked with him a few weeks ago.
