“ I'm very sorry for your loss. I was his former PE teacher at Roswell. My deepest condolences.

“ I do not know you and did not know your son but I am a Clemson alumna still intimately connected to the university. I also have a son who will be entering college in the fall of 2023, so not much younger than your sweet boy. I read a quote once which stated the following: "It matters not how long a star shines; what is remembered is the brightness of its light." And from what I can tell, your Joseph was a bright light, indeed. Please know that there are others who grieve with you, hoping somehow to lessen your burden. While I cannot fathom your grief, I can send you my prayers, trusting that Joseph remains whole, complete and 100% loved by the Universal force (God) that binds us all and assures us that we will never truly be without.

With love and prayers for your comfort and for Joseph's safekeeping until you are able to see him again, Anna Lee Travis
