“ Joe, I will miss you more than I ever imagined I would. You were such a loyal friend to Mary and I. I still remember the first day we met and at that time I thought to myself I wish he were my supervisor and sure enough a few months later it came to pass. Oh sure we had our differences and I will never forget a call you made asking for an increased forecast and I blew off some steam. You waited about 30 minutes and called me back and said "Have you cooled down?" My point is that you knew how to manage people. I am sorry we were out of country and I could not be there with you in the final days. Rest easy my good friend you certainly earned it. Evelyn will be just fine as she is covered in prayers by your many friends. I'm gonna miss you.

“ Dear Joe,

How well I remember the first time we met. You interviewed me 27 years ago today and hired me for the position I still have! It was in a meeting room at the Cleveland airport of all places. LOL. I still remember how nervous I was and how I almost missed my plane to arrive in Cleveland on time. Words cannot express my gratitude for the gift of your decision and the impact it has made on my life. Your bright and happy personality and quick wit enriched my work life and personal life right from the start.

How little remarked are the effects we have on others lives. That is truly our life's work. Thank you for all of your gifts. We remember you warmly. Fair winds and smooth sailing in the "Next Place." Comfort and peace to Evelyn and your family.
