“ Shalom could very well be. My parents managed to raise me in a total atheist bubble. I really DID grow up with no faith, no need for faith, no realization that faith existed as an important factor for other people. All the Jewish holidays etc. were celebrated but as fun social things that had pretty stories in them you know, like the Greek and Norse mythologies have really pretty stories, and like all the fairy tales I like so much. I was taught that there are funny people in the world who believe in gods, and magic, and superstition, and such and we don't mock them because it's rude .but I really did grow up without feeling that I was non-religious. I just WAS. the culture I accumulated was about books, and history, and music, and pop culture, and had nothing to do with what other people thought about fairies.##imported-begin##Severine##imported-end##

“ My dear friend, Joyce, was a treasure to her husband, her family and her friends, but most importantly to her God who healed her the moment he took her to Heaven. Our loss is Heaven's gain. Praying God's peace and comfort to all those whose lives she touched.##imported-begin##Brian & Alison White##imported-end##

“ Dear Doug and family,

Words cannot express the sadness we feel in the loss of our much loved Joyce. When we lose someone we love it seems as though time stands still. I know nothing but the Lord Himself can ease the pain of your loss, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer.##imported-begin##Dawn & Dave##imported-end##

“ Dear Doug and family,

Our hearts are so full it is hard to express. Our prayers are with you at the loss of sweet Joyce. Her bright smile and laughter will always be remembered. She will always be my dear friend and sister in Christ. The two of you have always been God's plan of what a marriage should be. I will always be grateful that I had her in my life. May God's comfort surround you and hold you close until you are reunited with her forever.##imported-begin##Barbara & Leon Jackson##imported-end##

We are thinking of you at this time and know words cannot even touch the loss you have for your dear sweet Joyce in this world but we all TRUST and know the GAIN of being reunited again and Jesus has made this possible. We see her twinkling eyes, smile, hear her laughter and love for you and the LORD. We will be away in another state during the memorial. Our deepest thoughts and prayers to you.
