

Judith J. Waterman

August 7, 1946 - January 10, 2007

God saw the load getting heavy, the hill too hard to climb. He gently closed her weary eyes and whispered, "Peace be Thine." As the angel of death walked among the earthly inhabitants, he stopped at the bedside at North Fulton Hospital of Mrs. Judith Jennifer Rocke Waterman, and found her in great pain. Realizing that she had lived a very productive and rewarding life, he felt that she should begin the journey with him to his eternal home. On Wednesday, January 10, 2007 around 11:15am, God called her home. Judith Jennifer Rocke Waterman, the daughter of the late Solomon Rocke and Doris Hoare Rocke, was born in Belize City, Belize on August 7, 1946. She was educated in Belize at Rocke's Private School and Wesley College. She traveled to London, England where she graduated as a concert pianist from the Guildhall school of music. She loved to travel and migrated to New York City where she attended Elizabeth Seaton College and Pace University, and work as a banker. Later, she began an outstanding career with AT&T who brought her to Atlanta, Georgia. After retiring from AT&T she started working for AIG (American International Group) until she became ill. Judith was an ardent musician whom loved opera and had a flair for life. Before leaving Belize, she enriched the lives of many individuals with her music. She operated a studio where she trained many piano students. She also served as the organist at Wesley Methodist Church in Belize City. She surrounded her life with music as she marched to the tune of her own drum. She was a loving mother who was totally dedicated to her boys. She leaves to mourn their loss but to gain solace and comfort from their memories, her husband, Frederick Waterman, her two sons, Dwayne Waterman of Woodstock, Georgia, and Sean Waterman of Charleston, South Carolina, her sister Betty Brown and husband, Roy of Brooklyn, New York, her brother, Dennis Rocke of Newark, New Jersey, two nieces, a nephew, a special cousin, Emma Hoare Jackson of Wilmington, North Carolina, and numerous other cousins and relatives.

THANATOPSIS

So live, that when thy summons comes to you
The innumerable caravan which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each
Shall Take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but sustained
And soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams

“ Ms. Judy was a very well respected employee and co-worker at AIG. Her co-workers referred to her as "Ms. Judy". She worked hard at the office and beamed when she talked about her family. Please know your mother and wife will be remembered as kind and humble in spirit. My prayers are with you in the days to come as you grieve the loss of Ms. Judy.##imported-begin##Jenny Collins##imported-end##

“ Dewayne,

My prayer is that GOD give you and your family comfort and healing in this time of sorrow. I know we always do not understand GOD's plan but we do know it is in HIS time and for HIS purpose. I am sure your mother touched a lot of hearts and is now looking down from heaven upon you with a big smile and very proud to have had you as a son. One day you will be together again.

May GOD bless you and your family.
