

Julia Frances Webb

August 19, 1920 - February 11, 2024

Julia Frances Webb, age 103, of Roswell, Georgia and Alexandria, Virginia, passed away on Sunday, February 11, 2024. Frances, as she was fondly called by family and friends, was born on August 19, 1920, in Hilda, South Carolina, to the late Eugene and Fannie Delk. She was the eldest of five children and only 11 years old when her father died. During the Great Depression, Frances lovingly cared for her younger siblings while her mother worked multiple jobs outside the home to provide for the family. Frances moved to Charleston, South Carolina during World War II to work at the Charleston Navy Yard as a welder, building ships. There, she met her future husband, Jewell K. ("Joe") Webb, Jr., who was serving in the Navy. Frances and Joe married in September, 1945. They eventually moved to Marietta, Georgia and later settled in Roswell, Georgia in 1963, where they raised their beloved daughter, Barbara. Throughout her life, Frances was steadfast in service to God, her family, and friends. She was a longtime member of Roswell Presbyterian Church, where she was active in service projects sponsored by the church. She was also a devoted member of the Roswell and Alpharetta chapters of the Eastern Star. She was the person who could always be trusted to provide aid or guidance to those in need. Frances was optimistic and always expressed profound gratitude for the blessings, big or small, that she received in her life. Despite enduring hardships and feeling the impact of war during her youth, Frances was always convinced she lived a blessed life, and she faced each new day with a smile and treated every person she met as a friend.

Along with her parents, Frances is preceded in death by her husband, Joe, and by her four siblings. She is survived by her daughter, Barbara Webb Cash, of Washington, D.C.; a host of nieces and nephews; and her many friends.

The visitation for Julia Frances Webb will take place from six to eight o' clock in the evening on “ Barbara, I'm so sorry that I didn't see this before your mom's service today. You don't know me, but I worked with your mom many years ago while I was in college. We managed a small sandwich shop together in an IBM office complex. I learned so much from her, from cooking to just general lessons in life. I moved to Roswell years later after I had married and had a child of my own and reconnected with her. I hadn't talked to her in years and didn't realize that she was still with us. I'm sorry about that because I always thought so highly of her and considered her my friend. She was so proud of you! She also loved both you and your dad so much! I'm so sorry for your loss, but know you made her life complete. I know you will miss her. God bless.
