

Mrs. Katherine Wolfe Johnson

December 8, 1924 - December 19, 2015

Katherine was born Dec. 8, 1924 in Tulsa, OK, the daughter of Lloyd Eli Wolfe and Rose Cross Wolfe. Her older sister was Jeane Wolfe Creel.

Katie grew up in Tulsa, attended First Baptist Church and graduated from Will Rogers High School. She attended college and worked in Tulsa before marrying Ralph E. Johnson in 1946. They lived briefly in New Mexico and Kansas City before her husband's job took them to Houston, Boston and finally to the Atlanta area in 1967. They lived in Dunwoody, Alpharetta, and Roswell until 2015, when declining health necessitated a move to DeKalb, IL for Katie to be near her family.

Katie was a faithful Christian who had a servant's heart and loved giving of herself to others. She was actively involved in the Red Cross for several years, served the Lord with delight at church all her life, loved working with the Friends of the Alpharetta Library at their monthly book sales, and volunteered for thirty years as a Northside Hospital Assistant Chaplain. Dunwoody Baptist Church was her beloved home church since 1967.

She loved her family deeply, including husband, Ralph (deceased in 2009), son, Eric, daughter-in-law, Janet, grandchildren, Angela and Jeff and their spouses, Bobby and Sarah, her four great grandchildren, Valerie, Alec, Joshua, and Shannon, and her nieces and nephews. The circle of those she loved included many more at her church, in the places she lived and served, and friends from the past who are scattered around the country.

Katie departed this life peacefully on Dec. 19, 2015. She lived her life well, fulfilled God's purposes for her, was deeply loved, and will be greatly missed. Her funeral service will be held at Northside Chapel, 12050 Crabapple Rd. in Roswell on Jan. 2, 2016.
