“ I have so much respect for Aunt Kaye. She always has a way of seeing things that I can relate to. We share a love for art, crafts, healthy foods, and curiosity. She always loves me unconditionally, sees my individuality and has a genuine interest in who I am. Thank you sweet sweet human. Your beautiful light is inextinguishable. Shine on lovely emerald.

“ So sorry to learn of Kaye's passing. Jimmy and Kaye have been friends since 1967 or 68, Kaye was the Homecoming Queen at West Georgia in 1969 and I was the Class President and had to introduce her to the students in attendance at the Old Gym. She was loved and admired by everyone. This is a great loss to our old West Georgia family.
