Kayla was an awesome friend, she cared for her friends and family, she was an awesome role model. I am her sisters best friend. She went to my high school. She graduated the same year my brother graduated. If you were sad she was the girl to brighten your day, she was someone you could always count on. I have known Kayla Canedo since Elementary school. She never talked behind your back, she was always there for friends and family, she was nice to everyone. I will miss her a lot. When I found out she died I couldn't hold my tears in I was sad for 2 weeks because I have known Kayla Canedo so long and I couldn't believe she was really gone. We will see her again in heaven one day.

“Dear Yvette, Tom, and Family: It has been a number of years since I have seen you, but I will never forget teaching Kayla in the Wednesday evening preschool class at St. Thomas Aquinas. She came each week with a smile on her face, sat right up front listening attentively whenever we gathered on the floor to read a story, and though she started out the year as a shy 4-year old who rarely wanted to answer a question, she ended it as one whose whole face lit up as she anxiously raised her hand to volunteer an answer or to help pass out snacks (or whatever other help was needed). Kayla was just one of those children you never forget, and you, Yvette, were one of the Moms I always looked forward to seeing because of your kind and positive attitude. From everything I have heard and read these past several days, Kayla continued to be a beacon of light and love to all those with whom she came into contact, just as she was to her 4-year old religious education preschool class.

My heart aches for each one of you as I know you each had a different but very special relationship with Kayla; I pray that your faith will get you through this devastating time and serve as a reminder that one day you all will be reunited again with Kayla to share eternal life. For now, you have beautiful memories to sustain you and an angel watching over you. I hope with time you will find peace in your lives again.

You are all in my thoughts and prayers. With love and peace,
