“ Nancy I am so sorry to hear about Kent. I didn't get the message till today. I know we won't be able to make it down but you will be in our thoughts and prayers as will your family.##imported-begin##Barbara and Leon Plankinton##imported-end##

“ Though I only had the good fortune to meet Kent once or twice years ago, I have kept up with the Mitchell's lives through Nancy's details of events through her wonderful Christmas cards. I do have a lasting and fun memory of Kent's love and enthusiasm for theatre. I wonder if he pursued this in any form? I love the passion he showed for life back then (so many years ago) and know that this passion must have been a driving force in everything he did in life. Thinking of you, Nancy and family. What a comfort to know that his love is carried in your loving family.##imported-begin##Elaine (Carl) Charles##imported-end##

“ Nancy,

I cannot tell you how sad I am that your husband was taken so young and so quickly.

I am so glad we were able to visit with you and Kent. I only wish we could have done it again.

So very sorry for your loss; so glad he did not have to suffer.

*Much love for you and all your family##imported-begin##Suzanne
