“ Kim, you were my right hand at Menchie's. You were there from the beginning, your hands and influence are here now and will always be apart of this place. I will work extra hard to ensure the goals you and I were working towards continue. I miss you and so does your Menchie's family. Thanks for your time and your heart.##imported-begin##Jason##imported-end##

“ Kim, I miss you dearly. I love you so much sweet girl, and I wish you were still here with us. You were truly a friend to me for the months that I had the priveledge of knowing you. “ There are so many memories of wonderful times with Kim and the Mitchell family that I don't know where to begin. Two indelible images come to mind. One is Kim and Amanda in elementary school hugging each other tightly and shrieking to avoid being separated whenever it was time for one or the other to go home. The other is just her sweet smile and kind face. We'll all miss you terribly, Kimberly.##imported-begin##Barry Franklin##imported-end##

“ One of my favorite memories of Kim is her quiet smile. I remember one day when we were in a meeting and we were reviewing the past semester for Kim. She was smiling as we gave her positive feedback and then even commented on the fact that she had won a citizenship award that year and her smile broadened as Ann touched Kim's shoulder and smiled at Kim.##imported-begin##Millie Dawson-Hardy##imported-end##
