“Kim was my buddy, my sweet friend...there will never be another like her. What a wonderful, honest and loyal wife, mom, and friend she was. She certainly fought the good fight with such joy and determination to be what God wanted her to be. I will miss her on this earth, but look forward to time with her in heaven. So glad she is now free from all that she suffered on earth and is victorious with a new body in heaven.

...Love to you Wayne, Joey, Jon, Jewel and all of the family.

Kim could truly say; follow me and I will show you how to follow Christ. She was always there to give an encouraging word, to whoever needed it. I recall the family Christmas letter she sent out this year; Kim was fighting hard to keep going as she battled the cancer, but her letter was all about the joys and accomplishments of Wayne and the boys, and she talked of how others had been a blessing to her, not one word of her own battle. That is the Kim that we will always remember and love until we see her in Glory. Pam and I send our love and prayers for Wayne, Joey, Jon, and the rest of the family.

Kim was the most courageous lady I believe I've ever met. She was an inspiration to me and always gave me a smile even when I am sure she didn't feel like smiling. I will never forget her kindness to Ray, especially as he went through the worst of the MS. She will be missed greatly by her friends and loved ones.

God bless her husband Wayne and children. She waited on God and he gave her Joey and John after many years of patience. I will never forget you Kim. I love you all very much, Ruth Vaughan
