

Krystalia (Chris) Metropoulos

April 8, 1927 - May 29, 2011

METROPOULOS - Krystalia Papaconstantinou Metropoulos was born April 8, 1927 in Athens, Greece. As a newly wed to George Sam Metropoulos, she came to America in 1950. Her life was devoted to family, first as a mother, then as a grandmother; playing an integral part in raising her daughters and then teaching them to be mothers to her grandchildren. Her daughters were Dorothy Macris married to Bobby, Stephanie Kantsios to Tom, and Maria Ward to Tommy. To Chris, her grandchildren, Daniel & Christy Macris, Emily & William Kantsios, and Alexandra Ward, were considered her blessings from heaven. She lived a meaningful life and died peacefully May 29th surrounded by her daughters and son-in-law, Bobby. Chris always had a smile on her face that lit up the room. She enjoyed to cook, knit, embroider and was very active in her church through choir, social groups and volunteering. She loved to be surrounded by family and friends, and known to all as "Yiayia". Visitation hours will be Tuesday, May 31st from 5-7 p.m. and Trisagion (prayer service) immediately following at Northside Chapel, 12050 Crabapple Road, Roswell, Georgia, 30075-2422 ; phone: 770-645-1414. The funeral will be Wednesday, June 1st at 11a.m at Holy Transfiguration Greek Orthodox Church, 3431 Trickum Road, Marietta, Georgia 30066. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations to one of the following: In memory of Krystalia Metropoulos Ahepa M.L.
