“ Kyle was the best friend I've ever had. I'll never forget our trip to Europe, our friendship from middle school, all the way through college. I have countless memories with him. I loved him like a brother. I never imagined losing him so soon. Until we meet again, buddy. I love you and miss you.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Kyle was one of the most genuine and authentic people that I've ever known. He had such a warm and endearing spirit and I will always remember him as the lovely person that he was. I pray God will give you comfort in this sad moment but knowing that you raised a magnificent son who cherished and loved openly should warm your heart.
