

Kyle James Smith

February 27, 2005 - September 7, 2022

Kyle James Smith, age 17, of Roswell, Georgia, passed away Wednesday, September 7, 2022. He is the beloved son of Nancy (nee Caggia) and Scott Smith, formerly of Montvale, New Jersey and New City, New York. He is survived by his parents, as well as his brothers: Matthew Smith, of Englewood, New Jersey; Frank Smith and Bradley Smith, both of Roswell; grandmothers, Janet Caggia and Luanne Smith; his aunt and godmother, Renee Caggia, and his aunt Ashley Smith, as well as many cousins.

Kyle spent his first ten years in suburban New York State. He was an avid football and baseball player, and a member of the Boy Scouts. When his family relocated to Roswell, Kyle continued to immerse himself in baseball and Scouts, forming friendships with teammates and classmates alike. Kyle's sense of humor was rivaled only by his warm smile and his sensitivity and willingness to help others, without drawing attention to himself or betraying a confidence. He was blessed to have so many dear friends and developed close relationships with his peers and their families. Kyle's genuine care and kindness for others will live on in all who knew him. While his time with us was brief, please honor his life and memory by carrying out your own acts of kindness.

"Nothing can dim the light which shines from within." - Maya Angelou

“ Kyle and I were in boy scouts for a couple years and played baseball together for a little. He always made everyone around him feel welcome and never hesitated to put others first. There is nobody else i've known with such a genuine love for this close to him. He had that amazing laugh and captivating smile that filled any room with such a bright energy. You are so wonderful and I enjoyed our time together. I love you Kyle and you will always have a special place in my heart and everyone else's. You and your whole family are in my prayers.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. My heart broke when I heard of Kyle's passing. I was Kyle's English teacher in 9th grade and again in 12th grade. He was a sweet young man with a bright future. For the rest of the school year his desk in English class will remain empty in honor of him. His classmates and I will certainly miss him.

“ During covid year me and Kyle had lit together and we were both online. I can't tell you how many times we texted each other and skipped the online meetings to play video games or we would join the meeting and play games with it in the background not paying attention to it at all just having fun. We would turn in our work so late and I would always get a text like 3 months after the assignment was due saying "yo tony you got this?" And I would laugh and be like yeah of course. Kyle was an amazing kid and his smile and energy radiated thru everyone. Playing baseball with him for a few seasons was so fun because the kid just always wanted to have fun and joke around but was also really serious especially when he pitched. His curveball was nasty 😭😭. Although a lot of people didn't know Kyle I am so glad I got to get close with him and he a friend of his.

“ You are a source of light and love for me & so many other people. To carry on your memory will be my duty as your brother. As you looked to me for strength, I now look to your memory for mine in this time. I smile when I think of the times we spent together and how much of me I saw in you. This deep connection we had was indescribable. Something I'll never have with another individual again. I cherish those moments. I cherish you ❤️
