

Larry H. Webb

March 5, 1941 - March 11, 2009

Larry H. Webb, lifelong resident of Roswell, GA, has gone to Heaven. He was a football player, a cowboy, and the best man anybody knew. He leaves behind his brother Gary Webb, his son L. Todd Webb, and his beloved grandchildren, Jackson and Aubrey Webb. He takes with him our love, our remembrances, and our thanks to God for having had the privilege of knowing him. He made us all better.

“ I am his great niece. I am only 12, but I love Larry very much. I especially love his love of horses. I guess I get that from him. My ponies, Misty and Simi will miss him too. My love, Heather##imported-begin##Heather Morrison##imported-end##

“ I had the pleasure to work with Larry at Bi-Rite Grocery in the late 60's and again in the 70's at his store in Alpharetta. He was always full of mischief and fun. He will be missed. Todd, Gary and other family members my prayers and thoughts are with all of you.##imported-begin##Steve Dempsey##imported-end##

“ I believe Larry owned Bi-Rite grocery in the 1960s and 70s and my mother, Betty Brannon, worked for him as a cashier. Betty passed away in 2006. I am her son, Brad Brannon, live in Atlanta and remember Larry and Bi-Rite.##imported-begin##Brad Brannon##imported-end##
