“ I'm very sorry for your loss. I'm Mert Prides daughter. My dad worked with Len for many years at Printpack. I remember him always being kind . My father thought very highly of him. I know they had good times at Big Canoe playing golf. Deepest Condolences.

“ Leonard, aka "Mr. Segall", aka "Adam's Dad", was a kind, patient, and intelligent man. I remember he allowed Adam and I to assist him in constructing an outdoor area for the family's dog Scout. He laughed at our incompetence and patiently guided us to a successful completion of the project, while somehow managing to not condescend or lose his wry humor. He was a good man, and will be missed. All my prayers and condolences to my friend Adam and his family...grieve well for a life well lived.
