“ To Linda's family: I am so sorry for your loss. I knew Linda through water aerobics here at the Villages of Concord Farms. She was a sweet lady and I enjoyed talking with her about our grandchildren and how much we each enjoyed being a grandparent.....I know she will be missed.##imported-begin##Candy Blanquet##imported-end##

“ Dear family, we knew Linda for too short a time, but we saw that she took a great interest in the thoughts and feelings of those she met. She was a vibrant person who enjoyed her family. We respect her memory and wish her family peace and comfort in the knowledge and memory of the wonderful person, mother and grandmother that she was. Rest in peace Linda.##imported-begin##Carol and Carl Zanon##imported-end##

“ Sharon and Tim,
My condolences to you and your family!
Linda was a great friend to me; we shared so many fun moments...What great memories I will always cherish.
I have a small pillow on my chair that I received from Linda in a gift exchange that reads: 'Your friendship is a gift I can always count on and reminds me that the most important things in Life are free' I will always miss her!
Love to You All!

“ Sharon and Matthew: I am so sorry to learn of the death of your Mom. Chris, Brittany and I enjoyed family trips to Hilton Head and Myrtle Beach with you and your Mother when you were teens. Not to mention working with her at Nordson and friends in common. Fond memories indeed. My deepest sympathy, April Pass##imported-begin##April Pass##imported-end##
