“ The time has come to say Goodbye...My Treasured Friend. I was there today in Soul & Spirit with Lavender flowers to Honor your time here with us. I've kept your family covered in heartfelt prayers during this tough time of preparing to say their goodbyes. Your Mom and Dad gave the world the Gift of You. They will see the Significance of how great a Gift You Were by the loving words of your many Friends. I will continue to pray for Angels to surround your precious Son, asking God to keep watch over him with Holy Healing, Blessings, and Protection. Lisa, I loved you then, I love and miss you now, I will love you forever!!! I know God has you tightly wrapped in His arms of Eternal Love and Peace. I will be comforted by the memory of your last bear hug, your loving kindness, and unconditional friendship. You will remain in my heart, until I see you again. Goodbye Lisa... You belong to Heaven now. Love Always, Gen 1-22-20

“ I’ve known Lisa since we were 12 years old. Here is a picture another old friend shared from our high school days. Although we went separate ways soon after high school I will always cherish our friendship. We had a lot of fun times together. Much love to her parents, sister, and her little boy I never got to meet. RIP Lisa ❤️

“ Je l'ai connue j'avais environ 15 ans. Elle a marqué une partie de mon adolescence. Je garde un très bon souvenir d'elle lorsque nous étions au Touquet à boire une petite bière toutes les 2 en fêtant la vie ..c'est elle qui m'a fait connaître des bons groupes américains que j'écoute encore ..merci Lisa de m'avoir permis de te connaître. Toi, ton français vont me manquer.. bisous

Translation: I knew her when I was about 15. She marked part of my adolescence. I have a very good memory of her when we were at Le Touquet drinking a little beer together as we celebrated life ..she's the one who introduced me to some good American bands that I'm still listening to ..Thank you, Lisa, for letting me get to know you. I'll miss your French.. kisses

“ The summer of 2018. We were on our way to eat Thai food, which was, of course, both our favorite cuisine (next to Italian, of course). I was always so happy to see her, it felt like a birthday celebration when we got together! She gave the best hugs. They were so strong. She loved her family and she loved her real friends unconditionally. She was so much more than my best friend, she was my soulmate. Lisa was a sensitive, loving, kind soul who deserved nothing but happiness and peace. She is at peace now, watching over the ones she loves. I love and miss you so much, Lisa.

“ What a smile! Lisa was beautiful inside and out. So many friends will dearly miss her and the joy she brought to their lives. We all have precious memories to keep us company, whenever we are wishing she were still here with us. We only need to remember she is looking down upon us from Heaven knowing she holds a special place in each one of our hearts. Lisa will live on through all the lives she touched with her enormous love, compassion, and acceptance. We will always love you precious friend!! Photo from Lisa's Facebook wall from 1-19-18.

“ Her exterior does not adequately address, how tough a person she was and the size of her heart, or the fact that, at 42 years, she been to hell and back several times, Now that she is heaven bound to touch the face of God, she will be as tough on God, as she was on her parents, it is only fair, the lord is and continue to be your shepherd, Rest In Peace, my friend

“ Lisa was my best friend of 23 years. We met in Italian class at UGA. She always held a special place in my heart and no matter how far we were away from each other, we always reconnected without missing a beat. I'm so grateful that she came into my life and enriched it. I love you to the Moon and back! Rest easy, beautiful. ❤️
