“ The last memory I have of Ma-ma was visiting her Memorial Day weekend at Indigo Manor. She reached her arms out to me and I held her for a long time. She said my name and I sat and spoke to her while rubbing her legs. The next day, I brought our 3 girls to visit and she smiled watching them play in her wheelchair pushing each other around her room. I think she was nervous they'd get into trouble by the nurses. We each gave her a hug and before we left, the last thing I said to her was "I love you Ma-ma."##imported-begin##Shannon Koch##imported-end##
