

Lorena Elizabeth Goodlow

October 6, 1985 - September 20, 2022

Mrs. Lorena Elizabeth Goodlow, age 36, of Hiram, Georgia. Passed away Tuesday, September 20, 2022. Lorena was born on October 6, 1985 in Duluth, Georgia. The daughter of Author Roy Coleman Jr. and Theresa Marie Green Coleman Hughes.

She moved to Roswell, Georgia for most of her childhood. As well as living in places such as Marietta and Chatsworth. During her younger age, she married and had two beautiful daughters, Caroline and Veronica Bartlett. Later, she married Floyde Goodlow to whom she had one more beautiful daughter, Jordan-Mae.

With a very outgoing personality, and a fierce tenacity for survival from a troubled youth. With so many downs and few ups at the time, Lorena fought hard to survive in such an unfortunate situation. She worked on trying to become a better mother for her daughters while working on being better all around. She was a very stubborn woman and hard to convince. To some, what wasn't shown was the love she actually had for many people in her life. She did love hard.

Through all of life's turbulences, she was unable to finish high school. However, due to her fighter spirit, she managed not only to get her G.E.D, but also obtained a nursing certificate. Lorena, wanted to be a caregiver, whether it be to her family or to someone else. That never fully worked out due to being squeamish, but those thoughts of wanting to help others never left her mind.

Dubbing herself as a green-eyed, southern peach, she loved to swim. If she wasn't swimming she was always up for camping. With an extreme fascination and love for horror, it only made sense for October (her birth month) to be her favorite time of year. What could be better than to have people come together on Halloween? She was always up for a good scare!

Lorena, indeed, lived many lives inside a short life. We have learned so much and have grown through her life.

Lorena is preceded in death by her father, Author Roy Coleman, Jr.

She is survived by her loving husband, Floyd Goodlow; daughters, Veronica and Caroline Bartlett, and Jordan-Mae Goodlow; mother, Theresa Marie Green Coleman Hughes; sisters, Angel Hause and Faleena along with many friends whose life she had an impact in.

A Celebration of Life for Lorena Goodlow will take place at 11 o'clock a.m. on Saturday, October 22, 2022 at the Northside Chapel Funeral Home located 12050 Crabapple Road, Roswell, Georgia. A reception will be held following the service at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Lora's passing. My prayers are for all of her family, immediate and extended. My her struggles in life help guide those that loved her to steer clear of those same burdens. I only met her once or twice, but remember her as such a sweet and kind person. God has taken her home and she is free. ”

“ Lora was a gentle soul. She once lived a life of hardship but overcame it all. She loved hard and she made sure you knew you were loved by her. Me being her sister there were ups and downs but I knew no matter the time she had me. Her family was her world and her husband being the base of it all. Her love for her husband was like no other. I wish I had more time with her but know she's near. I can still hear her voice sometimes. I am so blessed to say she is my sister. Until we meet again watch over us. I love you!

“ Lora, such a light gone to soon. She was a warrior for everyones anyone whos heart would beat for the underdog who overcame alot because of her great love for her husband and children. Sadly, she was also a lone wolf . God made us to not be alone in our fight, we all have them, really its how we seek help and believe in the program that we can succeed. She had loving family but seemed to feel she needed to do things alone. We will miss her smile her willingness to always stand in the gap. God has her now she not alone she praying i am sure of it. That we know she good , and happy and most assuredly that her light in our hearts will continued toremind us we are never alone..Thanks Lora your love was truly felt. Blessings love you all Vicki

“ Lora will forever be in our hearts and the memory of her smile will always bring us joy. We had the honor of being called Mom & Dad for almost 15 years. She was truly a part of our family, the eldest of 8 children. We will cherish the time we had together and have confidence that she is watching over us with her beautiful smile everyday.
