“ Dear Peggy, Allison and Family -

We were so grateful to have known Charles for even the short time we did. We enjoyed visiting with him each time he came over to the office. The things we will remember about Charles are, of course, his beaming smile and his dynamic, loving personalty. God bless you all...our prayer for you is that all the many memories of this amazing man comfort you now and in times to come.##imported-begin##The Mascali Family##imported-end##

“ I met Charles and Peggy about 2 1/2 years ago at World Harvest Church. From that point forward, I was never around Charles that he did not seek me out to say hello and shake my hand. He had an infectious smile that lit up the room. I'm sorry that I knew him for such a short while. Charles will be greatly missed and my prayers are with his family.##imported-begin##Rudy Watkins, DC##imported-end##

“ When you think of heaven, think of stepping on a shore, and finding it heaven. Taking hold of a hand, and finding it God's hand. Breathing new air, and finding it celestial air. Feeling invigorated, and finding it immortality. Passing from storm to tempest to an unbroken calm. Waking up, and finding it home. Heaven is shining brighter as one of its best soldiers has come home. We will miss his beautiful smile and captivating spirit...it will live on in his family here. Sending prayers and love to you all. Your loss is heavens gain and you all will see Charles again one day in heaven. God bless you all!
