“ I have too many memories to share but a few rise to the top. From the moment I met Lucille, she welcomed me into her life. Since I grew up without a mother, she was pleased to allow me to call her "Mom". As the years passed and I took my children to visit her, I had to be careful not to admire too many things in her home or I would find myself discovering those objects in my suitcase when I returned home! My most treasured possession is and always will be the pottery rabbit butter dish that she gave me after I admired it. She taught me the appreciation of the quality in life. She was a beautiful, kind, vivacious and generous woman who now leaves a void in my life. I love you "Mom"

“ So many memories....I remember her teaching me how to load a dishwasher correctly..lol. When my son (Trae) was young and we moved to Atlanta, she wanted a picture of him and placed it on the table in her bedroom along with all her "loves". I had the privilege of knowing Lucille since 4th grade. What an incredible lady. She will be on the Board of Directors....in heaven...I am certain!    Loved her dearly

I've known Aunt Lucille all my life. She lived life with gusto. I admired her wit, her generosity, her devotion to family, her bonhomie, her audacity, and frankness and appreciated her support for my writing. We'll hold her in our hearts forever.
