

Luis Hernan Velasco

July 28, 1971 - May 7, 2026

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Luis Hernán Velasco, 54, who went to be with God on May 7, 2026, in Roswell, Georgia.

Luis was a devoted husband to Ana Cristina Sanchez and a loving father to Martín and Gabriella Velasco, who were the center of his world. He was the beloved son of Luis H. Velasco and Zoraida Amparo Panesso, and a dear brother to Elizabeth Velasco.

Luis will be remembered for his warmth, kindness, big smile, and the joy he brought to those around him. He had a gift for connecting with people and building lasting friendships. His greatest happiness came from time with family—traveling, creating memories, grilling for loved ones, watching soccer, listening to the Gipsy Kings, dancing, and walking with his beloved dog, Diego.

Professionally, Luis dedicated his career to technology, engineering, problem-solving, value engineering, and automation. He held senior leadership roles at leading technology companies like Oracle and SAP, where he was deeply loved and appreciated by the communities and teams he helped build. He was respected for his integrity, thoughtfulness, and mentorship.

Above all, Luis lived a life defined by love, generosity, and humility. His presence lit up every room, and his absence leaves a profound void in the hearts of all who knew and loved him. His legacy will live on through his family, friendships, and the many lives he touched.

A viewing will be held on Wednesday, May 13, at 3:00 PM, followed by a Funeral Service at 4:30 PM at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors and Crematory, 12050 Crabapple Road, Roswell, GA 30075.

“ Luis and I joined SAP the same year back in 2003. He was a great collaborator and always prioritizing helping colleagues over his own backlog of work. When I think of Luis, I remember him cracking a smile when something was funny ... and working with Luis, he'd always find something. Rest easy buddy -- and I'll keep you and your family in my prayers.

“ Luis was more than a leader to me, he was a mentor who changed the trajectory of my career. When others felt I was too green for VE at SAP, he took a chance on me. More importantly, he did not confine me. He created the space to grow, challenged my thinking, and gave me the platform to perform. He had a rare ability to see potential early, invest in it, and then step back so others could rise.

Five years later, I had the privilege of joining him again at Oracle to build the VE team. What I will miss most are the Monday morning debates, the end of day conversations, and the way we pushed each other hard, like family, yet always came back aligned.

Luis believed deeply in doing the right thing, even when no one was watching. He lived that every day.

The world has lost a truly good human. I will miss our conversations....

Till we meet again,

Luisito,

Eres el real hermano que la vida me regaló, y le doy gracias a Dios por todos los momentos, la hermandad y el amor vividos.

Como ser humano te admiré por tu sensibilidad por los demás, ejemplar en tu proceder, profesional destacado, buen compañero, bondadoso, y un esposo y padre como pocos.

Te llevo en el corazón.

Eres una bendición en mi vida.

Te quiero con el alma.

Mi querido y bien recordado Luis!!! Me quedo con los lindos recuerdos de niños, primero en La Merced, jugando fútbol en el parque o en la calle. Tus bellos padres me invitaban a quedarme en tu casa y jugábamos hasta el cansancio. Fué el descubrir de los videojuegos... Luego, fuiste a vivir a Colinas de Arroyohondo y allá continuó la historia de una amistad bonita y transparente aunque tomáramos rumbos distintos. Le doy gracias a Dios por tu vida y la de tu familia, por ser un amigo especial en todo el sentido de la palabra. Tu alegría, caballerosidad, bondad, lealtad y generosidad, entre muchas cualidades, marcaron una huella en mi corazón de amigo. Desde la distancia, Acompaño a tu familia (Ana, Gaby y Martín), y a tus padres Luis Hernán y Amparito, y tu hermanita Lizita; y oro al Señor Jesús para q los abrace con su tierno amor y los inunde de paz y tranquilidad.
