

Mrs. Lula Belle Taylor

March 3, 1929 - March 11, 2018

Lula Belle “Lou” Taylor, 89, of Roswell, went to be with the Lord on Sunday, March 11, surrounded by her loving family. She was born on March 3, 1929 in Acworth, Georgia, to Leroy and Mae Conner, the eldest of three sisters. She enjoyed a 69 year marriage to John “Juppie” Taylor that ended in his passing exactly one year prior to hers, evidence of God’s blessing of their union and His love for them. Surviving are her loving daughters Connie (Ed) Stinson of Roswell and Sheila (David) King of Anderson, South Carolina, and one sister Edna (J.C.) Palmer of Marietta. Also surviving are four grandchildren, Russell (Sherri) McTyre, Matthew (Kathy) McTyre, Taylor (Matthew) King Young and Kendra (Graeme) Kaiser; seven great-grandchildren, Jake McTyre, Lane McTyre, Kate McTyre, Mallory McTyre, King Young, Will Kaiser and Norah Kaiser. Niece, Malinda (David) Stephens and a great-nephew, Joshua (Bonnie) Stephens and great-niece, Deborah (Geoff) Warr. Lou was a life-long resident of Roswell, graduating from Milton High School in Alpharetta at the age of 17. She retired from Georgia Power Company in 1995 after 35 years of service. A member of Lebanon Baptist Church in Roswell, Lou served in various capacities as a faithful member of the congregation for 52 years. Her love for the Lord was apparent in the way she served others. She loved to cook, enjoyed socializing with friends, and most of all, spending time with her family. They will be blessed with fond memories of annual beach and lake trips each summer, Christmas Eve celebrations, and countless family get-togethers. She leaves a strong legacy of faith, wisdom, and love to all who knew her. A humble, kind, and extraordinary woman, Lou gave generously of all she had – considering others more important than herself, and making each person feel special in her presence. Her life was a rare and beautiful light in the world, and she will be deeply missed by those that loved her. Visitation will be held from 6:00 to 8:00 pm on Tuesday, March 13, 2018 at Northside Chapel and from 10:00 to 10:50 am on Wednesday, March 14, 2018 at Lebanon Baptist Church. The funeral service will be held at Lebanon Baptist Church at 11:00 am on Wednesday, March 14, 2018 - Pastor Brian Peterson officiating. The burial will be at Green Lawn Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Lebanon Baptist Church, 11250 Crabapple Road, Roswell, GA. 30075

“ Ms Lou Taylor was a true joy and inspiration always smiling and always welcoming — I have many fond memories of Loulabelle over the years at Lebanon — May her family know how sorry we are for your loss—she was one in a million! She was loved deeply and she will missed until we meet again! Love, Dana and Bruce Coleman and family

Phil Connell and I got to eat lunch a few months ago with Lula Belle, Pansy and Sandra Crunkleton who attends our church. We had a great time reminiscing about the old days. I spent lots of time in your home. I still can't believe she was brave enough to let me drive her car so you and I could go places during the day while she worked at Georgia Power. Turns out she knew my husband long before I did since he worked at GP, too! I saw her and your Dad often at Kroger and we would always have a few good laughs. I pray that the Lord will give you, Connie and the rest of the family peace and comfort during this time of great sorrow. Sherry Connell Bennett “ Sheila, John Connell here. Heard today about your mom's passing. I will never forget Lula Bell or you. I pray that the comfort of the Spirit will overwhelm your mind and emotions. The hurt may run deep, but God's grace runs deeper still. Lula Belle was one of a kind.
