

Mabel Cobb Roberts

November 14, 1910 - November 4, 2007

Mrs. Mabel Cobb Roberts age 96 passed away Friday, November 2, 2007 in Kerrville, Texas. She was born in the Birmingham community of Milton County, Georgia on November 14, 1910, the daughter of Samuel and Georgia Cobb. She had survived five sisters and two brothers, as well as her husband, Charles Roberts, also of Kerrville, Texas. In her early years, she taught Sunday School to young people and touched many lives with her love for Jesus Christ and the special was she told familiar Bible stories. She was an accomplished seamstress and artist. Her first love was family-scores of cousins, nieces and nephews and their children-all scattered across America, yet somehow always staying in touch with their beloved Aunt Mabel. She is remembered for her care-giving, nurturing spirit to any and all who entered her life. She leaves a legacy of unconditional love, inspiration and encouragement - always believing the best in people. This past year, the leadership of an established, international marketing company learned of Aunt Mabel's inspiration and influence in the lives she had touched, and launched The Aunt Mabel Project-a special program which now aims at creating work environment built on encouraging people to reach their fullest potential. Aunt Mabel left all of us a legacy of love and encouragement. Graveside services will be held on Saturday, November 10, 2007 at 2:00 PM at Boiling Springs Cemetery in Milton, GA. Rev. David Beavers and Rev. Robert Bagley officiating. The family will receive friends on Thursday from 6-8:00 PM and Friday from 2-4 and 6-8:00 PM at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors and

Crematory, Roswell, GA. 770-645-1414. www.northsidechapel.com
