“ I have my first school memories of her as my Kindergarten teacher. Though it was some 50 years back, can still visualize the classroom and her graceful presence. So grateful for her investment into my life in those early formative years. Praying for Shreyas his sister, his dad and the extended family that God would comfort them and bring peace to their hearts in a special way at this time.

“ I met mrs Mangala Nagesaiah as colleague when I joined DAV JVM school.

We were neighbours in E block. We used to walk to school together. After her daughter shruthi git married she took fancy to painting to use up all the oil colours that was left by.

She was such a determined artist .she would sit to do her art work after school everyday and on weekends .

I had a wall carpet of. 3x4 ft with deers n trees.

She made a replica of that with great tenacity.

I remember black n white portrait of Indira Gandhi, which was beautiful done.

We lost touch after they shifted to Bangalore.

Met her once during a marriage in Bangalore .

A very soft spoken, gentle and very sincere in whatever task she undertook .

Still very humble n simple.

I pray to GOD and may her soul rest peace.

My heart felt condolences to Shruthi and Shreyas.
